

WELCOME TO STONE BARNS CENTER

Stone Barns Center for Food and Agriculture is a nonprofit organization working to promote ecological agriculture and a culture of eating that supports sustainable farming practices.

MEMBERSHIP

Members help us advance our work to catalyze an ecological food culture. We hope you'll consider joining us as a member to take advantage of exclusive benefits, including Farm Member Hours, special programming, discounts and more! For more information, visit stonebarnscenter.org/membership.

FARM SAFETY

Stone Barns Center is a working farm. Please enjoy your visit and stay safe.

Most fences are electrified; do not touch.

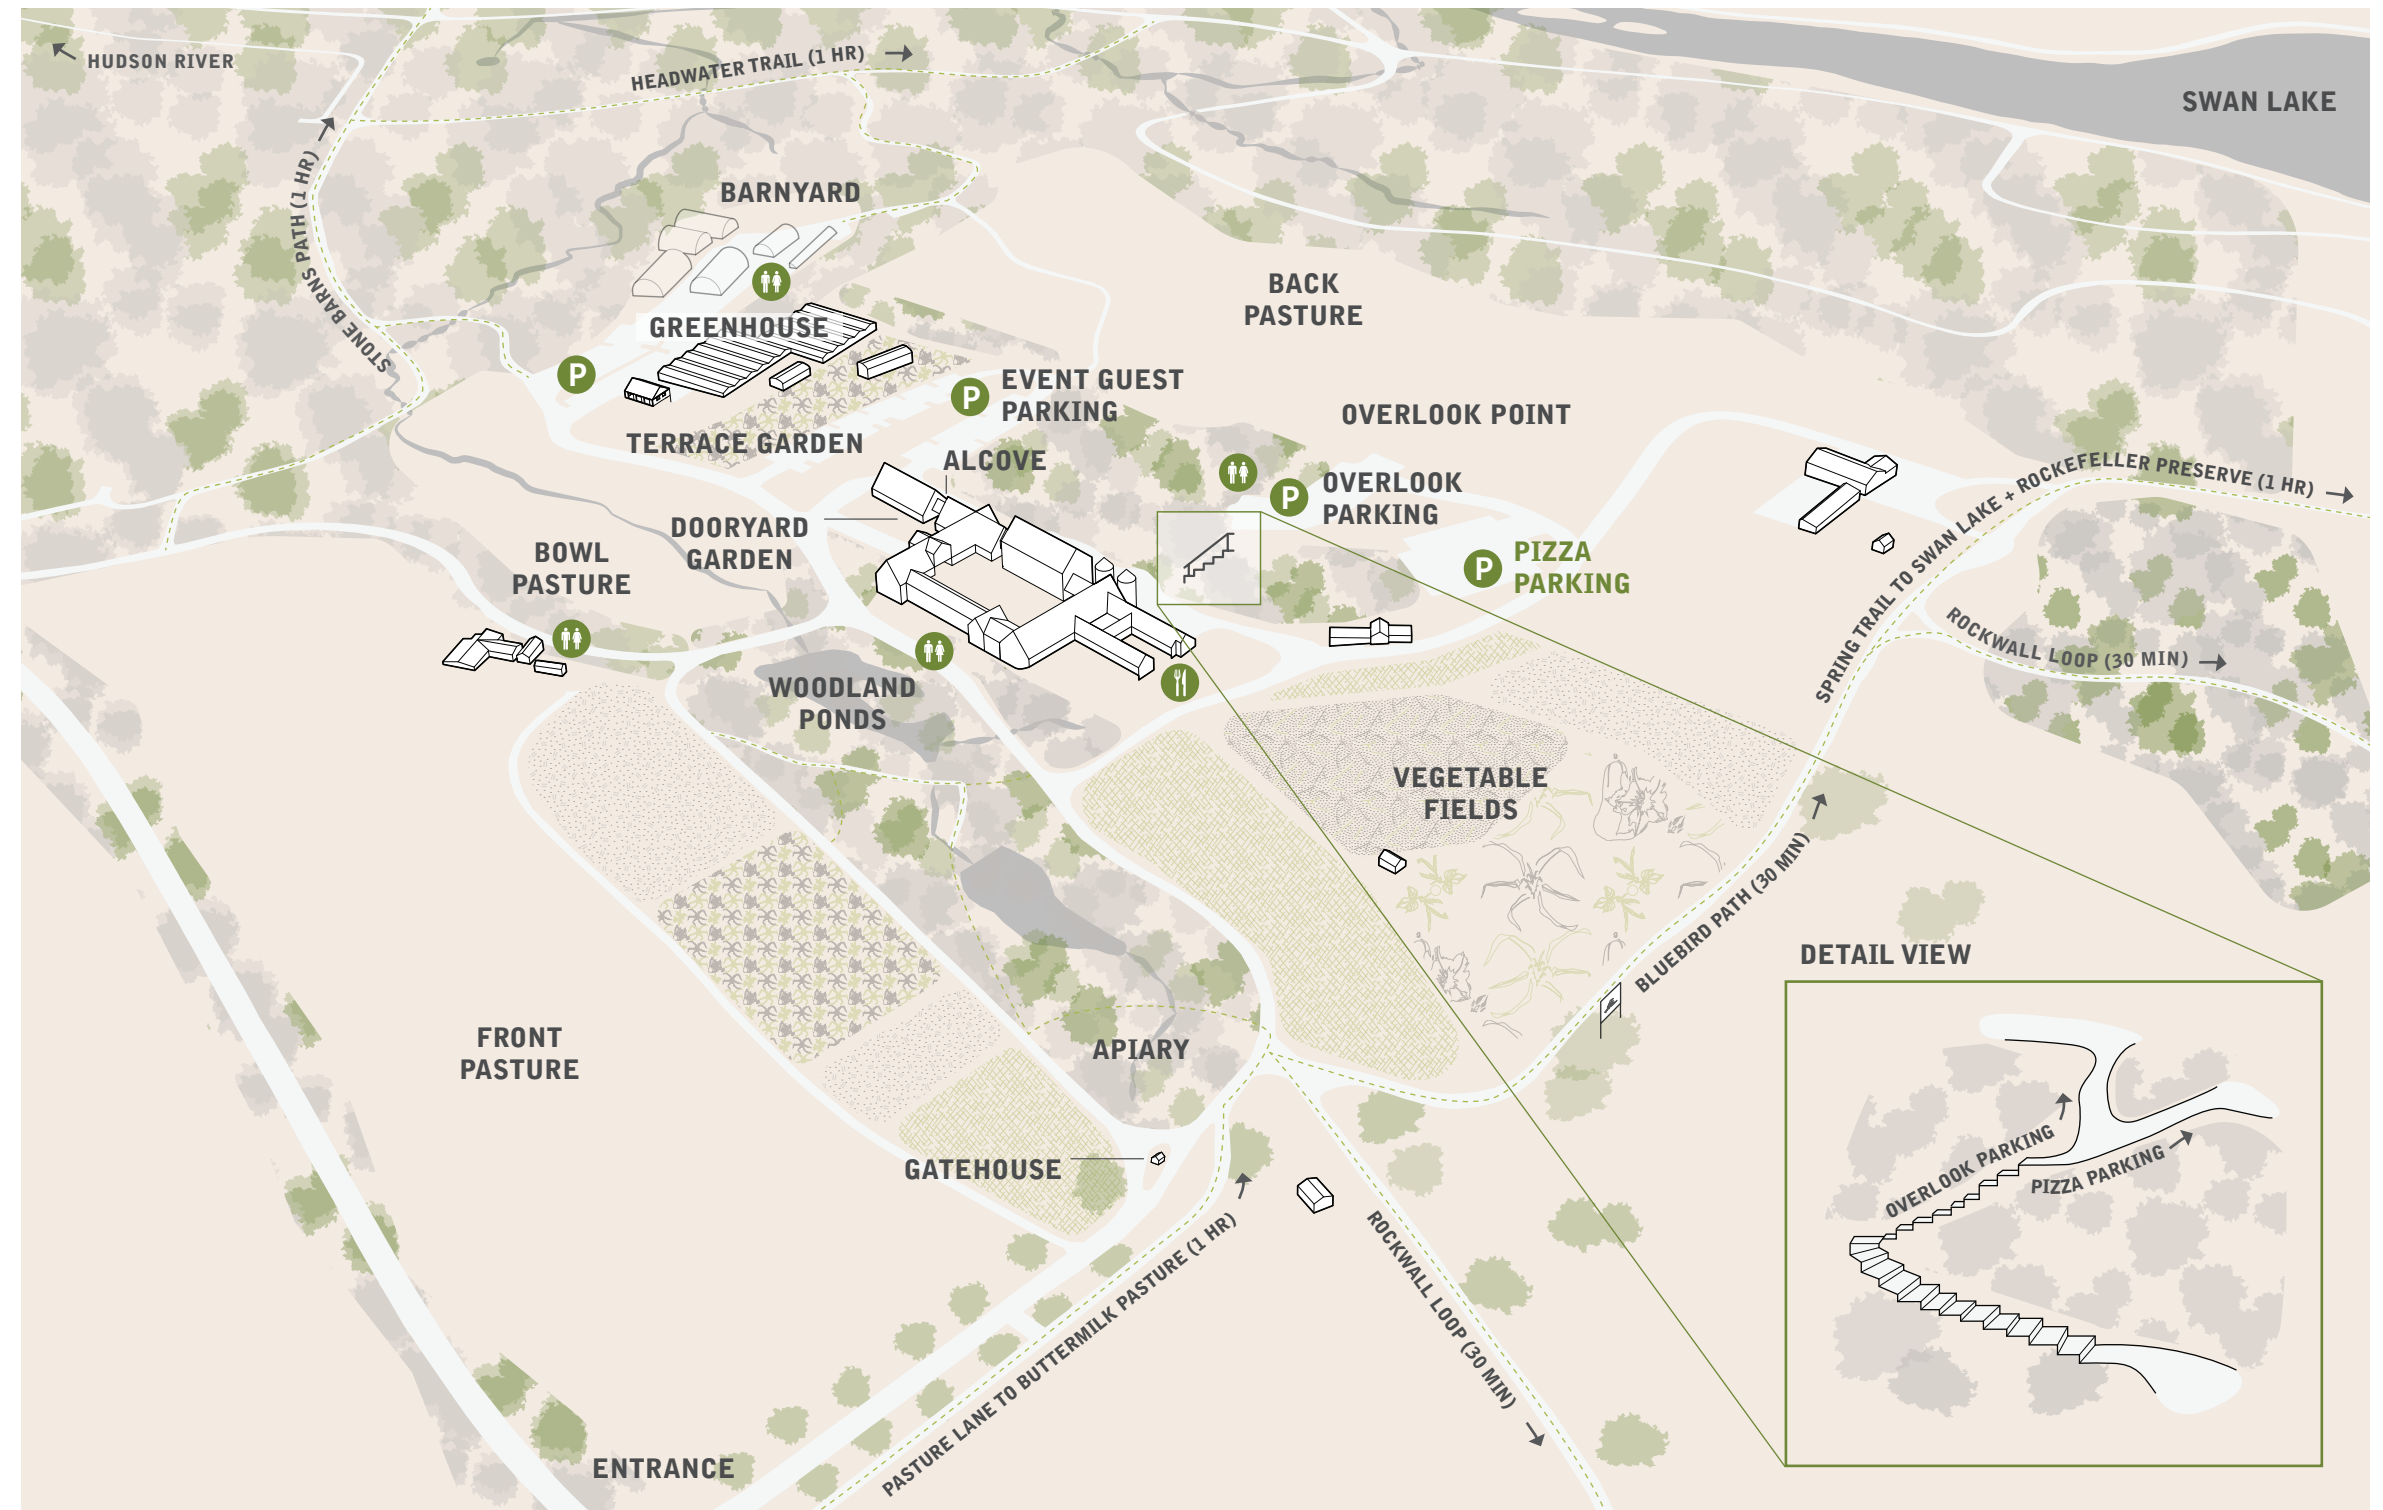

Our plants are headed for the table! Do not pick or step on plants in the greenhouse or fields.

Do not bring dogs into the barnyard, pastures or growing areas; keep them leashed at all times.
